ENGLEWOOD, Colo., July 21, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Boost Mobile today announced the expansion of its Motorola device portfolio with the addition of the moto g fast and the moto e. Both devices are now available at authorized Boost Mobile retailers or online at BoostMobile.com. For customers who switch to Boost Mobile, the moto g fast is available for $29.99, and the moto e is available for $9.99.

Moto g fast

The moto g fast lives up to its name, thanks to its Qualcomm® Snapdragon™ 665 octa-core processor, demonstrating cutting-edge performance for smoother multitasking and powerful online gaming capabilities. You can also capture the perfect shot in any situation with the triple camera system including a Macro Vision and ultra-wide lens. Efficiency drives the device's latest features, which include 32GB of internal storage, 3GB of RAM, a 4000 mAh battery, up to 512 GB expandable memory with a microSD card.

Moto e

Equipped with a fast-focusing 13MP dual camera system, including a depth sensor and phase detection autofocus, the moto e captures subjects quickly for fantastic photos. The device also includes water protection to prevent damage from accidental spills and splashes, and the simplicity of unlocking using only your fingerprint. The moto e comes with 32GB of internal storage, 2GB RAM, a 3550 mAh battery and up to 512 GB expandable memory with a microSD card.

Boost Mobile customers will love the larger screens to bring their favorite movies, shows and websites to life. Moto e boasts a 6.2" screen, while the moto g fast is slightly larger at 6.4", and both come equipped with Max Vision Display HD+(1520x720) resolution for big time entertainment.

Boost Mobile plans offer customers flexibility, choice and performance

Boost Mobile's affordable prepaid phone plans allow customers to enjoy all the features of their moto g fast or moto e and save money.

Boost recently launched its new "$hrink-It!" plan, which starts at $45 per month for 15GB and includes unlimited talk and text. $hrink-It! reduces customers' monthly rates by $5 after three on-time payments, and by an additional $5 after six total on-time payments. In addition to $hrink-It! and other popular Boost plans, the company recently launched a $35 per month 10GB plan that also includes unlimited talk and text.

Boost Mobile service plans include mobile hotspot and 99 percent nationwide coverage with voice roaming. New Boost Mobile customers with a compatible device will activate on the new T-Mobile network, where they will receive a stronger signal, faster speeds and more coverage.
